Scott A. Flanagan

Scott's quilting journey spans more than 25 years; his quilt collection contains more than 150 quilts and he has made more than 300 quilts. He loves to make special quilts for family and friends, sometimes for no reason at all, partly for the joy it brings him and to see the reaction when the quilt is received.

His love of quilting started with his grandmother, but he comes from a family of crafters and woodworkers. Originally from Longmont, Colorado, Scott moved to Fremont, Nebraska, in August of 2003 to attend Midland Lutheran College. In 2007, he graduated from Midland with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration. While in college, he took a part-time job at Country Traditions, and following graduation, he accepted a full-time position at the store.

In 2011, Scott started his own pattern design company, "4th and Main Designs by Scott Alan Flanagan", and spends much of his free time designing quilt patterns for Quiltmaker, McCalls Quilting, and Fons & Porter. He loves the endless possibilities available when designing patterns, and is excited when putting together a project that he has designed.

When asked what his favorite part of quilting is, his response sums it up, "All of it, from designing, to cutting, to piecing, to quilting, to binding. It is all part of the creative process and by skipping a step it feels as though part of the project is missing."
