Our 7th annual National Quilting Day was held Saturday, March 19, 2016.

Over 700 guests and volunteers from a several state area came out to enjoy the day. A big THANKS to our 99 volunteers, the Quilt House staff, and our sponsors: Lincoln Quilters Guild, the Nebraska State Quilt Guild, Aurifil, Handi Quilter, AccuQuilt, and local shops Calico House, Cosmic Cow/Udder Store and Sew Creative.

We were pleased to show off the newly expanded galleries at the Quilt House! Our lectures, each repeated twice, received rave reviews and filled the room to capacity! Thanks to Holly Zemke (“Go Tell it at the Quilt Museum”), Jonathan Gregory (“Man Made Quilts” exhibition), Sheila Green (“Modern Quilting”) and Leslie Main of Country Traditions of Fremont (“Times They are a Changing”).

All of our offerings related to exhibitions in our galleries. The Lincoln Modern Quilt Guild had a fabulous display of quilts featuring improvisational techniques. Their members demonstrated and visited with guests. We featured a variety of Handwork demonstrations and invited visitors to Sit and Stitch, a popular activity for the youngest quilters. Quilts by five of our local guys were displayed over the 1st floor reception area. Cuddle Quilt

President's Message

Dear NSQG members,

Here it is 174,240 minutes into my year, and it seems like yesterday I was writing the last letter.

I have exciting news to share with you. We welcomed a new great granddaughter, Brady Violet, into our family on March 3, 2016.

How are all of you doing with your projects? It has been a cold winter and the snow storm kept many of us home for a few days. I hope you were able to get some projects done during this time. Our local guild has issued its members a challenge this year: to write down all the UFO's and see how many we can mark off by the end of the year. I have so many I don't know where to start! I guess I should start with the easiest!! We do have one month we can give away some of the UFO's if we know we aren't going to finish them. You all know what those are... you see something and it looks soooooo good in the shop, but when you get home you say to yourself, "What was I thinking"?

It is that time of year when your phone will start ringing and the person on the other end will be asking for your help. Please consider being an officer or a committee member, it is fun and rewarding. We have some of the nicest ladies and we would love to have you join us.

The convention committee is working hard to get everything in order for our convention. It is going to be great fun! Have you picked your classes? Are you waiting to hear what you will need to shop for in your class, like we need an excuse to shop!!

Award nominations are due. Send your nomination to Mary Kampfe, 7905 Doug Street, Kearney, NE 68845 or you can email her at mkampfe@frontiernet.net. You can find a list of categories and a registration form in the Newsletter. Also, if you have an item for the silent auction for Quilt Convention 2016 contact Bonnie Kucera. It has been awhile since we have had a silent and live auction. I think it will be fun, and hopefully profitable, to help defray the cost of convention.

The scholarships were picked at the March Board meeting so I hope you sent in your name or one of your friends name. It's a great way to introduce the Convention scene to new quilters and those that have not been able to attend a convention.

I best close and not waste any of my precious minutes.

Happy Quilting,
Marty Kleppinger
NSQG President 2016

NSQG 2016 AWARD NOMINATIONS NEEDED!

A reminder that now is the time to honor individuals and groups for their unselfish contributions to their guild and quilting community. National Quilting Day 2016...continued from page 1

volunteers had a workshop and showed a large number of quilts that will be donated throughout our community. The Cuddle Quilts were hung all the way up the grand staircase. Guests had an opportunity to show a special quilt and have their quilt story recorded, "Go Tell it at the Quilt Museum," a project of the Quilt Alliance. The Conservation Workroom was open to observe the volunteers care for the quilts in our collection. How fun was it to have your photo taken in the giant Photo Frame? The museum offered a la carte lunch for our guests to purchase. Lincoln Quilter's Guild and Nebraska State Quilt Guild's raffle quilts were on display in the museum's foyer.

We hope you're able to join us for National Quilting Day 2017 to be held March 18, 2017 at the International Quilt Study Center & Museum!

Threads Across Nebraska 2016 October 13-14, 2016

The 12th Annual Threads Across Nebraska will be held October 13 & 14th in Kearney at the Buffalo County Fairgrounds. The Midwest Fiber Art Alliance from the eastern part of the state is the featured quilter display. Pat's Creative is helping sponsor Quiltworx quilts made by certified teacher Linda Tellesbo.

As a new feature of Threads Across Nebraska, classes will be offered this year. There will be ninety minute and three hour classes. The cost of the ninety minute classes will be $25 plus the show admission and the three hour classes will be $35 plus show admission. Teachers include Peg Pennell, Peg Spradlin, Dee Acklie and Bonnie Kucera with one more in the works. Registration forms and descriptions of the classes will be in the June newsletter. All classes will be handwork so the participants do not need to bring sewing machines.

Emails went out to the quilt guilds asking for quilts to share at the show. The form for registering your quilts will be available on the NSQG website. Let's have a special section at the show for the quilts that have been made using Quiltworx patterns! How many can we show?

Vendors are still being sought for the show. If you have any suggestions, please contact LeAnne Killion at 308-440-8867

Threads Across Nebraska is an important NSQG event and needs "many hands" to make it successful. Volunteers are needed for checking quilts in and out, the hanging and taking down of quilts and admissions for both days. Please plan now to help with this event for 2 hours or more on any of the three days. Let's continue to make this a successful event. For volunteer information and/or other questions, please contact LeAnne Killion at llkillion@gmail.com

Are you a Nebraska State Fair Quilt Show Volunteer?

If not, consider these possibilities:

Sponsors and Awards: Thanks to the amazing generosity of quilt guilds, shops, small groups and individuals who sponsor gift certificates, cash awards and the popular special ribbons. Monetary awards for the 2016 Quilt Show total more than $3500! On behalf of exhibitors and State Fair visitors, we thank you. When you visit the fair, check out the posters listing all the state sponsors and when you see these people, thank them for their generous support. Consider adding your name or small group/guild name to the list for 2017. *

Hanging the Quilts: August 24, 4 to 10pm we need 25+ volunteers to hang the quilt exhibits. Volunteers are needed to clip hangars to quilts, carry them to the scaffolds or cubicles to be hung or pinned into place. **

Exhibit Take-Down is September 5 beginning at 7pm. Volunteers will drop the quilts, remove and store the hangars, fold the quilts and place them alphabetically for release to their owners which begins at 8pm. **
White Glove Volunteers: Each of the 11 fair days, 20-25 white glove volunteers are needed to greet fair visitors, answer questions and keep watch over the exhibits. Daily shifts are 9am to 1pm, 1pm to 5pm and 5pm to 9pm. *

Day Captains: We would like to use a few dedicated Day Captains this year to spell the Superintendent and White Glove Chairman a couple of days or partial days to oversee exhibits. If you are interested in doing this, - maybe with a co-captain friend*

Request....

For a quilter to design a quilt depicting the State Fair logo.

Joseph McDermott, Executive Director of the Nebraska State Fair is interested in commissioning a quilt depicting the State Fair logo. If you are interested, contact him at 308-382-1620 or Nebraska State Fair, P.O. Box 1387, Grand Island NE 68802 to discuss details.

Lexington Plum Creek Quilters Guild

Submitted by Marty Kleppinger

Some of the Lexington Plum Creek Quilters Guild met to sew service quilts. The fabric was donated by Janet Kuglar from Holdrege, Ne. upon the closing of her quilt shop.

The quilts will go to various organizations, such as the Lexington Grand Generation Center, libraries in Lexington and Elwood for fund raising, with the remainder going to service men, care homes and others. Our day of sewing yielded two quilts, with fourteen more cut out and organized for the next time.

Two completed quilts and stacks of fabric on the table for upcoming quilts are pictured below. It was a fun day, we even took time for a potluck lunch.

22nd Annual Chadron Festival of Quilts: April 22, 23, and 24, 2016 “Diamonds are a Girl’s Best Friend”

In 1995, the Chadron Chamber of Commerce started what was then known as the Panhandle Festival of Quilts. The Chamber sought to sponsor a unique event to kick off the tourist season in northwestern Nebraska. The show became an annual tradition, and after the 2005 show, the Chamber passed the baton to the Pine Ridge Quilt Guild, who changed the name to the Chadron Festival of Quilts.

The Festival’s mission is to encourage, inspire and educate quilters of all skill levels. Beginner to expert quilters are encouraged to enter their work. We want everyone who attends the show to leave thinking, “I want make something like that” about more than one quilt! There is no fee to enter a quilt, and because we know quilters can be last-minute artisans, there is no deadline for entry or pre-registration. There is always a demonstration or trunk show happening at the Festival. Vendors teach the latest in gadgets or techniques, and local quilters give trunk shows or share their tips and tricks.

“Diamonds Are A Girl’s Best Friend” is the 2016 show theme. Quilts incorporating diamonds will be specially marked, and there is an award for the “Best of Theme” quilt as selected by the festival committee. In addition, the challenge contest this year is to design a project that depicts just why diamonds are a girl’s best friend. We are looking forward to some creative entries! The “Best of Show” quilt is also selected by the committee, while ribbon winners in the 15 quilt categories are selected by popular vote from attendees.

Each year, the festival planning committee selects a Featured Quilter--a local quilter with a unique specialty in quilting. This year, Bev Dodge of McCook, Nebraska, will share her love of wool applique. On Friday at noon, Bev will lead guests on an up-close-and-personal walking tour of her quilts, an opportunity for quilters to visit with Bev and ask questions about her techniques and inspiration. Friday afternoon, the first 40 participants will learn Bev’s wool technique in a Make-and-Take wool workshop. On Saturday afternoon, Bev will share her joy of quilting during her Featured Quilter presentation.

There are countless opportunities to win prizes at the Festival. In addition to dozens of quilting and non-quilting door prizes, the show always gets started with Quilters’ Bingo on Friday morning. A newer and hugely popular contest is the Quilted Scavenger Hunt. As guild members hang quilts for display, we are all on the lookout for unique hidden gems in quilts. We compile a list, and with pencil in hand, young and old have great fun trying to locate all 20 items.

Three vendors will be selling the latest in quilting fabric and tools this year: Pine Needle Quilts of Crawford, Nebraska; The Quilt Rack and Wool Cubby of North Platte, Nebraska; and The Sewing Center, of Rapid City, South Dakota. Shops enjoy large, 10’ x 18’ booths, so come prepared to buy!

Of course, no quilt show would be complete without a Raffle Quilt. This year’s offering is an original design by the guild’s own Patty Calhoun, entitled “Curvy Log Cabin.” Guild members paper-pieced the blocks; Patty, Phyllis Burk and Katy Miller constructed the quilt including the five inset applique blocks; and Whitney Tewahade of Ta-Da! Art Studio finished the quilt with her artisan long-arm quilting. Jan Sears, AQS-certified quilt appraiser, will estimate the quilt’s value and is also offering quilt appraisals for an additional fee all day Saturday, April 23.

Wherever you live and whatever your skill level, we think a trip to the Chadron Festival of Quilts will be well worth the drive and the $5 admission for the 3-day show. Come early and enter a quilt of your own in the show! There are plenty of attractions to entertain the non-quilters in your family in Northwest Nebraska, including Chadron State Park, the Museum of the Fur Trade, Chadron State College, Fort Robinson State Park, and Toadstool Geological Park. Visit www.chadronfestivalofquilts.com and www.discovernwnebraska.com to plan your trip for the day or for the entire weekend. See you at the show!
